

Once some disciples took Shri Guru to their town Hipperge. This is a holy place of Kaleshwar. A Brahmin Narhari lived there. He was a great devotee of God Kaleshwar. He daily composed five new stanzas in praise of Kaleshwar and worshiped him devotedly.

People told him the greatness of Shri Guru and requested him to compose poems in his praise. But Narhari said, 'I have sold my tongue to Kaleshwar and I shall not compose poems in praise of a human being'. As usual he went to the temple to worship Kaleshwar. While worshipping, he had a nap and he got asleep. He saw a dream that Shri Guru was sitting on the Shiva Linga and that he was worshipping Shri Guru. Later the Linga disappeared and Shri Guru only was seen. Shri Guru smiled and asked him 'You do not believe in a human being and then why are you worshipping me?'

Narhari awoke and wondered about the dream. He repented for underestimating Shri Guru Narasimha Saraswati, who was all incarnation of Shri Shiva.

Immediately he went to see Shri Guru, bowed to him and said, 'Kindly forgive me. Without knowing your greatness I underestimated you, but now I know that you are Kaleshwar himself. When Kamdhenu is at home, why should one be anxious? Kindly let me have your blessings. I wish to serve you hereafter.' Saying this he began to praise Him.

Shri Guru was pleased. He gave clothes to Narhari and accepted him as his disciple. Shri Guru said to him, 'Kaleshwar is great. You continue to worship him. Narhari said, 'When you yourself are Kaleshwar, why should I worship other Kaleshwar? I shall not go away leaving thy feet now.' In this way, Narhari poet also became a great devotee of Shri Guru'.